DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-30, drawn to a method of preparing a Si/SiGe layer on a semiconductor substrate, classified in class 438, subclass 459.
 - II. Claims 31-42, drawn to a multi-layer substrate, classified in class 428, subclass 446.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the second substrate layer can be applied by sputtering instead of bonding and annealing which is a different process.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2813

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: within claims 1-30, there are the following species

A. Claims 1, 6, 9, 10, 18-23 are drawn to a method of preparing a Si/SiGe layer on a semiconductor substrate.

B. Claims 2-4, 28-30 are drawn to growing additional layers of SiGe.

C. Claims 5, 24-27 are drawn to thinning or removing a substrate.

D. Claims 7, 8, 11, 12 are drawn to forming an encapsulation layer.

E. Claims 13-17 are drawn to forming a p-i-n diode.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

6. During a telephone conversation with Robert Trepp on March 20, 2001 on March 20, 2001 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-30. Because the restriction requirement, made by another examiner, was incomplete for failing to indicate the patentably distinct species, the present restriction requirement is being made.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
